Useful info with respect to the upcoming World Expo 2010 in Shanghai

The World Expo 2010 Shanghai China will be held from 1st May 2010 to 31st Oct 2010. The Expo 2010 site is at the waterfront area on both sides of the Huangpu River.

Due to the World Expo 2010 the local authority, Shanghai Maritime Safety Authority (SMSA), has imposed certain dangerous goods restrictions.

From 15th Apr to 15th Nov 2010 - all port terminals located in middle and upstream of the Huangpu river are prohibited from handling any dangerous cargo.

2. From 30th Apr to 31st Oct 2010 – all port terminals (excluding YAN terminal) will be prohibited from handling certain Dangerous Cargo

3. Port of Yanshan (YAN) is not affected by the restrictions.

General Rate Increase on Trans Atlantic Eastbound and Westbound

Please note that due to the current developments on the Atlantic trade a General Rate Increase of USD 300/TEU is to be implemented on 1 April 2010 on the Trans Atlantic East- and Westbound trade.

General Rate Increase on Asia Westbound

The market recovery has brought about an improved demand for container transportation in the Asia-Europe Trade. To adequately address the situation, APL will be introducing a rate restoration programme effective 1st March 2010.

1. Asia-North Europe: USD300/TEU
2. Asia-Mediterranean: USD400/TEU

We appreciate your understanding that the decision is taken to ensure continuity of our efficient and reliable services. With your cooperation, we are confident of meeting your transportation requirement into the future.
