

furniture). We continue to consider the applicability of the declaration requirement to products not included in the current phase-in schedule and we invite public comment on how the declaration requirement should be enforced as to these products.

The proposed phased enforcement schedule through September 30, 2010, is described in the table below. It is important to note that while enforcement of the declaration requirement will be phased in and will begin no earlier than April 1, 2009, the other Lacey Act amendments are already effective, and actions to enforce provisions of the Act other than the declaration requirement may be taken at any time. We invite public comment particularly on the products covered under phases III and IV of the revised plan, as well as on whether any additional Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS) chapters should be included in the current phase-in schedule.

* Declaration requirements are effective as of December 15, 2008. All declarations submitted must be accurate; false statements may be referred for enforcement. Failure to submit a declaration will not be prosecuted, and customs clearance will not be denied for lack of a declaration until after the phase-in date above.

With respect to the declaration requirement, the Federal enforcement agencies do not intend to refer for enforcement entries of products in HTS chapters not listed in the above phase-in schedule, during the respective timeframes, unless APHIS publishes another notice in the Federal Register announcing an amended implementation plan. Any such changes/additions would apply only to phases III or IV. There will be no further
